

US Representative Ron Paul hosts town hall meeting Open-to-all event will place tax-issues in top focus

US Representative Ron Paul will host a special town hall meeting on Saturday, Dec. 6. The meeting will be held at 10 am to at the Victoria Electric Co-Op, 102 S. Ben Jordan in Victoria, Texas.

The meeting will focus on the issues surrounding the national debate over the income tax, the Internal Revenue Service and the possible alternatives to the current system.

The public is encouraged to attend this important Town Hall meeting to let their views be heard.